Sleeping on your doorstep is killing me
I was king of the world now it's killing me
Can you lift me up somehow
Show me what I'm feeling now

[Chorus]
In this wide open space
On these wide open faces
In your wide open eyes
I can see
See you all around me

Get myself an island on the sea
Get myself a jetplane to carry me
Can you lift me up somehow
Show me what I'm feeling now

[Chorus]
In this wide open space
On these wide open faces
In your wide open eyes
I can see
See you all around me

I believe in luck
I believe in fate
I believe that love will find a way

I believe in luck
I believe in fate
I believe that love will find

[Chorus]
In this wide open space
On these wide open faces
In your wide open eyes
I can see
See you all around me

I believe in luck
I believe in fate

I believe that love will find a way

I believe in luck

I believe in fate

I believe that love will find a way
