Stai con me fino all'alba
Le luci impietose della stella del mattino
Sono sol per te

Dentro me il tuo fuoco riarde
E il sole non ha piu parole
Una dolce sinfonia che m'avvolge tutta

Stai qui con me fino all'alba
Finche il sole sorgera
Stai qui con me fino all'alba
Finche il sole lo vorra

Si, per te io rinuncio
Ai poteri del mondo delle tenebre
E dell'ingrata oscurita

Lascia che sia io a vivere
Eterna nel castello immortale
Che nasconde cheto il nostro sacro amore

Stai qui con me, ma per sempre
Il sole non ci sveglia
Stai qui con me, ma per sempre
Il sole non ci ferira

I can't deny my nature
Half living, half dead
I won't deny my nature
Half human, half god

He can't deny his nature - so cruel
He won't deny his nature - so sad

Undead and nightly creature, so selfish...
Evil and bloody monster, so greedy...

Please don't leave me now

I am deaf to your call
Won't you leave me alone?

Please, just kiss me now

In the dusk of my soul
There's no room for your words

Be the one I know

You don't know me at all
Now my rage I will show

Be the one I love

Don't you see my dark side is stronger?
Don't love me any longer!

All I see is your hand
Lying in my hand for the last time
All I know is the pain
Rising in my soul and your heart bleeding
What I hear such a loud silence
Seems so real and your life is fading
What I feel is an empty room
Understand there is nothing left for us

All I want
Is your hand lying in my hand
Till the end of time

All I need
Is your hand lying in my hand
Till the earth stops turning

Please, don't leave

My immortal beloved
