You must wonder why I kissed her
I don't quite know myself
And you have every right to leave me here hanging by myself
Why you didn't kick me to within an inch of my life
I wonder why you forgive me even when it's

One too many times - that I left you by yourself
One too many times - All alone in need of help
One too many times - Too late to tell you so
One too many times - I'm sorry

I know I can count on you
To let me off the hook again
But my weakness resides and I despise the man I am
Why I don't leave you if only to better my life
I wonder why I still deceive you, even when it's

One too many times - that I left you by yourself
One too many times - All alone in need of help
One too many times - Too late to tell you so
One too many times - I'm sorry

And I don't know what I need to do
To make you understand
And I don't know what it is that keeps you from taking off for good

One too many times - that I left you by yourself
One too many times - All alone in need of help
One too many times - Too late to tell you so
One too many times - I'm sorry
