Can I, call you heartless
Would I, be a friend

I am trying, oh I'm trying
My feelings have no patience
Why does this always happen
Don't you know that I love you
You put this wall between us
When we're supposed to be one
Why do I always feel like
That we will never feel right

Can I, call you heartless
Would I, be a friend

I am changing
Oh I'm changing
My feelings re-arranging
Constantly on the rebound
Trying hard not to be found
You put this wall between us
When we're supposed to be one
Why do I always feel like
That we will never feel right

Can I, call you heartless
Would I, be a friend

Yes, you need me
I need you
But I feel like
I am failing for you

Can I, call you heartless
Would I, be a friend

I tried to help you through this
But you would never let go
Why do I always feel like
That you will never, be a friend
