I hate to have to crash your wedding
With this shit
Let me sing you my drunk song
I hate to have to crash your wedding
But here it is
Let me sing you my anthem
I hate to have to crash your wedding
With this shit
Let me sing you my drunk song
I hate to have to crash your wedding
But here it is

I'm a be missin' you forever
We still should be together
I'm already on my third ring
These bitches ain't even on your level
I tried to replace you
With my ex
And the ex before that
Had me all miserable
When you left
Everything went left
Still got some of your things
If you want I'll send them to you
I'd rather send you my love
Even though I know it's past due
See it's goin' on eight years
Baptizing in my tequila tears
All the lights off I'm all alone
Just me and this bottle of patron

Singing you my drunk song
I hate to have to crash your wedding
With this shit
This my mother fuckin' anthem
I hate to have to crash your wedding
But here it is
Ohh baby this my drunk song
I hate to have to crash your wedding
It's what I sing when you're not around
Baby it's my anthem my anthem

I hate to have to crash your wedding

All you wanted was my heart and soul
And I was walkin' round so cold
And now every girl I tried to replace you with
Is just a name on a payroll
You get it
Shorty you the shit
And it's nice to see you hop up out that new six
Congratulations
I know lookin' forward to your wedding day
It's been so long
Damn shits changed
She's just another giirl on the blog
She can never compare to how beautiful you are
See you right I'm wrong
So long I'm gone

Just me and my bottle of patron
Singing this drunk song
I hate to have to crash your wedding
With this shit
It's my mother fucking anthem
I hate to have to crash your wedding
But here it is
Baby this my drunk song
I hate to have to crash your wedding
With this shit
This my mother fuckin anthem my' anthem
I hate to have to crash your wedding
But here it is

Yeah I know you probably not thinkin 'bout me
Yeah but I'm here thinkin' bout you
Yeah I know it might be a little late
To admit that I was just afraid
Cuz now I'm on the low train
And I hope I get off
Cuz I'm sure the next stop is cocaine
Or some other drug
Right now my heart's all numb
I bet you wonderin' where it's all comin' from

Ohh
Baby this my drunk song
I hate to have to crash your wedding
With this shit
This my mother fuckin anthem
I hate to have to crash your wedding
But here it is
Oh baby this my drunk song

It's what I sing when you're not around
Mother fuckin anthem anthem ohh
Baby this my drunk song

And I'm just shaking my head my head my head
My anthem
Must admit baby I'm scared I'm scared I'm scared
Drunk song
And I'm just shaking my head my head my head
My anthem anthem
Admit that I'm scared I'm scared I'm scared
I'm lost without you
Nia sing that shit
I've been lost without you
Nia sing that shit
I'm lost without you
Nia sing that shit
I've been lost without you
Nia sing that shit
Nia sing that shit
Nia sing that shit
Nia sing that shit
You I won't forget

I hate to have to crash your wedding
With this shit
Drunk song
I hate to have to crash your wedding
But here it is
