Here to sing the realest thing I've ever wrote
When I started to sing I prayed to God let me joke
Here to sing the realest thing I've ever wrote
When I started to sing I hope God let's me joke

You might wanna say
Regardless, he's heartless
Caught up, drunked out
God don't put anyone into yo mouth
You wanna say he's a not good son of a bitch
He'll never know what love truly is
You wanna say he ain't never been nothing
He's a monster, who would even want him anyway?
You wanna say I'm the loneliest thing in the world, why?
Next to this thing

But what they won't say
We will need help with God
I was there to help you by your mom
What they won't say is I've saved for my children
Like it's no tomorrow
I did it all, even through my sorrow
What they won't say
Is I've already bought houses for both of my daughters
What a wonderful father
What they won't say
Is I've changed every life of every nigga around me
Even the niggas that used to clown me

Some days I'm Superman
But sometimes even my cape needs dry-cleaning
Every once in a while
Sometimes I make it through without a pastor
But sometimes even I can use some preaching too
I'm just a child
Some days I'm full with positive energy
Other days I'm tired and I need help
Just a smile
Most days I can lead us to victory
Bu some days I need you to lead me

I can hear my mother say from the other land
This too shall pass
I can hear my father say from the other land
This too shall pass

Hate me when I'm up, love me when I'm down
Appreciate the good and bad until I'm underground
Love when I'm torn, love me when I fall
Crucify me if you want but I won't stop loving you

Ya'll ya'll ya'll ya'll
Ya'll ya'll ya'll ya'll
Ya'll ya'll ya'll ya'll
Ya'll ya'll ya'll ya'll

What they wanna say
Is how I don't give a damn about anybody
Who the fuck you can? Yea right
They wanna say
I'm selfish, I wasn't there when you was helpless
Yea, whatever, whatever
They wanna say
That I'm trash, I'm broken glass
I'm all that

But what they they they they they won't
Is that he's fell and that he's always down
At the same motherfuckin time he said he was gonna be there
They wanna say
Is that I take love seriously
They won't say
Is that I care like you wouldn't believe

So if I hurt you I'm sorry
I didn't mean no harm
But I really gave it my all

Some days I'm Superman
But sometimes even my cape needs dry-cleaning
Every once in a while
Sometimes I make it through without a pastor
But sometimes even I can use some preaching too
I'm just a child
Some days I'm full with positive energy
Other days I'm tired and I need help
Just a smile
Most days I can lead us to victory
Bu some days I need you to lead me

I can hear my mother say from the other land

This too shall pass
I can hear my father say from the other land
This too shall pass

Hate me when I'm up, love me when I'm down
Appreciate the good and bad until I'm underground
Love when I'm torn, love me when I fall
Crucify me if you want but I won't stop loving you

Ya'll ya'll ya'll ya'll
Ya'll ya'll ya'll ya'll
Ya'll ya'll ya'll ya'll
Ya'll ya'll ya'll ya'll

Here to sing the realest thing I've ever wrote
When I started to sing I prayed to God let me joke
Here to sing the realest thing I've ever wrote
When I started to sing I hope God let's me joke

I'm only human
And you're only human
