The Final Days are just in Sight
Im still breathing, Im doing fine
Restitutions, A compromise
Almost over before it's over!

Taken back to the day it went down
There was no weapon, there were no options
Unaware to the size of my own world
I'm suspected, I'm a suspect

Im sick of waiting for, the evidence
Constantly Pace the floor, Stay positive
You're a better man!

Forced isolation dulls the senses
Common man becomes the victim
When all you're left with is one decision
Embrace the ending, or push the threat away

Kept alive to wait for death, sent her to purify the mind
Product of the environment
Now I'm forced to kill!

Im sick of waiting for, the evidence
Constantly Pace the floor, Stay positive
You're a better man!

The threads have come undone
Feeling invincible to the outcomes
Pull the threads away

Pay your way out, pay your way out!

The threads have come undone
Feeling invincible to the outcomes
Push the threads away

The threads have come undone
Feeling invincible to the outcomes
Pull the threads away
