Every waking moment
I am staring at myself
Deep inside distorted mirrors
Searching for the out
Another chance to feed you the day dream
Feedback, it's what you see is what you get

Time to fill up social commondat
Your never going to feel full
Every waking moment sells a lie
We're hooked on a gimmick, buying our lives

Setup in the loop of selling you to you
Every thought and emotion

Just lacks something authentic
Every waking moment,
Every waking moment
We're just wasting moments
Given little choices

It wasn't always lived like this
The surveillance in our homes
Just push these buttons
There's no distinction between reality and life
