Dream Evil
"Blind Evil"

I took you by surpirse and led you through the night
I knew you never felt that safe
I turn and whisper to you, you turn away
I'd never lie to you, my friend

But you should know this one thing
This thing may one day save your life
It's real but you can't touch it
In every colour of the light

Blind Evil
Standing in the darkness
Waiting in the pouring rain
Blind Evil
Want to bring you sadness
Beat you to eternal pain

You turn away in anger
And walked alone
You said that I could go to hell
But in the street there's something
You can't deny
The path to death is where we meet

But you should know this one thing
This thing may one day save your life
It's real but you can't touch it
In every colour of the light

Blind Evil

Standing in the darkness
Waiting in the pouring rain
Blind Evil
Want to bring you sadness
Beat you to eternal pain

(guitar solo)

But you should know this one thing
This thing may one day save your life
It's real but you can't touch it

In every colour of the light

Blind Evil
Standing in the darkness
Waiting in the pouring rain
Blind Evil
Want to bring you sadness
Beat you to eternal pain

Blind Evil
Standing in the darkness
Waiting in the pouring rain
Blind Evil
Want to bring you sadness
