You watch the setting sun
The fear has just begun
All living things now fall asleep
You keep a burning light
Try to ignore the night
But you know that it's out there

You try to be prepared
You don't like to be scared
But you know there's no escape

Fear the night
Don't wanna fall asleep
Don't close your eyes again
You'll lose your mind
If you never sleep
You can't stay awake forever
Forever

Pure evil shows its face
In darkness cold embrace
Staring into emptiness
The demons in your head
Crawls underneath your bed
You know you have to stay awake

Fear the night
Don't wanna fall asleep
Don't close your eyes again
You'll lose your mind

If you never sleep
You can't stay awake forever

Another night has now passed by
You stayed awake and you survived
The day breaks through
But you know it will come back
The night you fear breathes down your neck
Don't fall asleep

Fear the night

Don't wanna fall asleep
Don't close your eyes again
You'll lose your mind
If you never sleep
You can't stay awake forever
Fear the night
Don't wanna fall asleep
Don't close your eyes again
You'll lose your mind
If you never sleep
You can't stay awake forever
