Ignited fuses burning IN THE NIGHT
This whole town's about to blow
Smoking ruins in the eyes of death
A smell of ashes overdose

I just can't help myself, this evil I've forsaken. I must do it all alone
And I lost the count of all the lives I've taken

Good nightmare, I don't have to watch you bleed
Good nightmare, 'cause I got another need
Good nightmare, I don't want to hear you plead
Good nightmare, when you're gone I will proceed

Sun is setting and I go to work
An evil sandman is my game
I watch and wait until you fall asleep
And when your lights go out. good night!

I just can't help myself, this evil I've forsaken. I must do
it all alone
And I lost the count of all the lives I've taken

Good nightmare, I don't have to watch you bleed
Good nightmare, 'cause I got another need
Good nightmare, I don't want to hear you plead
Good nightmare, when you're gone I will proceed

Once I was mad, I was proud, I believed
I once had a job, I had friends, but I couldn't breathe

Good nightmare, I don't have to watch you bleed
Good nightmare, 'cause I got another need
Good nightmare, I don't want to hear you plead
Good nightmare, when you're gone I will proceed
