How many years
Can I accept what's going on?
So many tears
I'm going blind
But love is blind
And I love you till the end of time
Shall I wait and see?
It's up to me...

You took my name
But you wouldn't share my blood
It's a shame off the road we ride
Give me peace
I turn into a beast
On the edge of suicide

Eat my heart of sin
Can't you be the soul to give in?
Leave your blame and hate
Come to peace before it's too late
A life in pain
Is a life we don't deserve
Take my hand
Enough we burned
The way you feel
You know that it's a shame
The love we had
Will fade away

Eat my heart of sin
Can't you be the soul to give in
Leave your pain and hate
Come to peace before it's too late

But love is blind
And I love you till the end of time
Shall I wait and see?
It's up to me...
