"Save Us"

Visit "Save Us" on MotoLyrics.com

You are the chosen one to battlefield you're ready to go Sail away to the land of the damned Survive from the dragon's claws

You're the one to save our lord
(You've got to fight! Kill 'em all!!)

You have that special gift that's given from above
You are stronger than the gods
A warrior of flesh of blood

You're the one to save our lord
(You've got to fight! Kill 'em all!!)
There's no one else but you
who can conquer the beast

Save us, and bring back the heart
our future lies upon your arms;
Save us, you know that you must tomorrow might never show up;
You got to fight

We put our faith in you we pray for you to win this fight You are our only hope complete your task and come back alive

You're the one to save our lord

(You've got to fight! Kill 'em all!!)
There's no one else but you
who can conquer the beast

Save us, and bring back the heart
our future lies upon your arms;
Save us, you know that you must
tomorrow might never show up

Sailing away, to unknown land
Now is the time, to face the demons

Tracking it down, I'm ready to fight Sharpen my sword, to slay the dragon

Save us, and bring back the heart
our future lies upon your arms;
Save us, you know that you must
tomorrow might never show up

Save us, and bring back the heart
our future lies upon your arms;
Save us, you know that you must
tomorrow might never show up;
tomorrow might never show up!
