Met by fate, thanks to faith
We've so little time what can I say
Your eyes so sharp, it cut my heart
Your words so sweets, my ears will bleed

It's like a dream or fantasy
A fairy tale with a happy ending
I don't wanna wake up, I want to stay hear
I don't wanna go down it's so scared

Chorus:
I have the will
I have one day
But I don't have the time to get there
I want to see you
I want to feel you
But I can not afford 16 hours

Opened my eyes, faced the day
Closed the book and forget the pain
The three-day dream is o.k.
I'm gonna see you soon when I find my way

Should I wear a new smile for a new day?
Should I change my mind and forget the pain?
With all the words you said to me
Just couldn't take the pain away from me
