It burns deep down inside of me,
We have ourselves to blame.
Not questioning, accepted as the truth.

Debate this faggots just cause,
The facts do not support theirs.
To liberate a people,
And with them (...)

Is it time to make the change,
Are we closer than before,
Can we help them break away,
Are we profiting from war?
It's time to make the change.

Catch your attention,
Since the exception,
Fight for a reason,
Can we clean up this mess,
The loss of loved one's ignorance (...)
They ...
These derelicts that ... win or lose.

Is it time to make a change,
Are we closer than before,
Can we help them break away,
Are we profiting from war?
It's time to make a change.

The only thing that I believe
Will help us see this through is faith.
Pray they will forgive,
Forgive our arrogance,
So we can make it right,
Right for they have wronged.

Is it time to make a change,
Are we closer than before,
Can we help them break away,
Are we profiting from war?

Is it time to make a change,
Are we closer than before,
Can we help them break away,
Are we profiting from war,
Is it time to make a change?

A change ...
Can we help them break away,
Is our patience wearing thin?
It's time to make a change.
