See the fire rain upon the melting ice.
See the world collapse before your very eyes.
Run away now! [Ooh ooh]
No place to hide.

See a foreign flag upon the city hall.
See the idols rise where the heroes fall.
Run away now! [Ooh ooh]
Too late to fight.
Run for your life!

Reformation,
Devastation,
Of a nation,
Deprival of the crown.

Burning pages
Of the ages.
Our stage is
The future starting now.

See the soldiers march through the empty streets.
See the temples rise while the country bleeds.
Run away now! [Ooh ooh]
Let's make it clear:
The future is here.
