When the day has gone
And at bed we rest our bones
Can't you hear? He crawls
Up the stairs and through your door
As he comes, and you are laying
Your dreams will be spread away

Dreamhunter... You know he's comin' for your

Slimy mess in the dark
He will rise your mind at last
You will try to get him out
He begins to scream aloud
Then in your head, resounds the crying
Of the creature of the night

Dreamhunter... The creature has come, he's around
Dreamhunter... The elf will never be found
Dreamhunter... He's feedin' into the night
Dreamhunter... He lives in your dreams, in your mind
Dreamhunter... Beware never stay alone
Dreamhunter... GO!

When the day has gone
Please keep the light on
And make you sure you will not loose
Against the evil's force
Cause now he's there, the little elf
Well known as the Dreamhunter

Dreamhunter... The creature has come, he's around
Dreamhunter... The elf will never be found
Dreamhunter... He's feedin' into the night
Dreamhunter... He lives in your dreams, in your mind
Dreamhunter... Beware never stay alone
Dreamhunter... GO!
