"Nordic Rage"

Visit "Nordic Rage" on MotoLyrics.com

Snow is falling
Stormy rains
Darkness everywhere

Below zero
Always colder
Today than yesterday

Trapped inside
We hoard our food
And ration our lives

Some believe that
The sun is a myth
It's time for me to fly

Oh, this ain't wonderland
It's a place on earth
Where nothing works

Come feel the Nordic rage
I can't
Stand it another day
Can you picture it all
Life in a hollow shell
Born in hell
Pray
This is my revenge
Nordic rage

Finally airborne
On the run
From these godforsaken plains

Judge by my surprise
When I land
In the flaming burning drains
