Ooh, yeah, yeah-yeah-yeah-yeah-eeh
Yeah, da da dat, hmm

Freeze, yeah it's coming at you a little bit faster than it seems, if only I could figure out what it all means Then we could sip our little potion and we can just be, happy in our illusion that we are free

But oh, I know, oh, I know, yeah, oh oh, I know, it's not me

Breathe, before they suck all the air out of the atmosphere, and we all forget why it is that we are here Just fishing for a pond where we can play, splashing words around to cover up the haze

But oh, I know, oh oh, I know, yeah, oh oh, I know, it's not me

Write, your own song, before it's too late, and it's gone Sing, yourself on, oh and I might, follow you along so

Hide, before it's too late and they get inside your mind,
I can help find a place where you will be fine Sit back and watch it all go down from the outside, save yourself for the day you have to try

But oh, I know, oh oh, I know, yeah, oh oh, I know, it's not me
Oh oh oh, I know, oh oh oh, I know, yeah yeah yeah oh oh oh, I know, it's not me It's not me
