"Oh Captain"

Oh captain, I'm ready to fight, grabbed my sword with all of my might Oh great king, I'm ready to kill, got my armor on, they say it's worth the thrill

'Cause I can't seem to tell, if this heaven's any different
from hell
Ignorance, yes it's free, one pill for you, one for them, one for me

Oh captain, I'm here to stay, I put my nights on hold, to give you my days
Oh sweet queen, I'm ready to die, I gave all that I am, just to be at your side

'Cause I can't seem to tell, if this heaven's any different
from hell
Ignorance, yeah it's free, one dose for you, one for them, one for me

Well I could run, run, run, as fast as I can Either way I'm sure I'll find my head buried in the sand, dealing with the man

'Cause I can't seem to tell, if this heaven's any different
from hell
Ignorance, yeah it's free, and there's enough for you and for them and for me Enough for you, and for them and for me, yeah there's enough for you, for them, for me There's enough for you and for them, and for me
