To witness the glory of a world beyond
A place of broken hearts and buried dreams
I break loose from my frozen coil
And I become one with everything

So let it be known
I no longer live
But simply remain
As a crystalline spectre in the dark

Some place not here or there
Some time not then or now
I see myself deified by a multitude of beings
That cry no hope
But I have no pity for the weak of mind

Build a bridge that lasts forever
Sanctify those who aren't clean
Dignify one's wrong doings
Save those souls that can't be saved

Solo - R. Johnson
Interlude - R.Kirk

Some place not here or there
Some time not then or now
I see myself deified by a multitude of beings
That cry no hope
But I have no pity for the weak of mind

I deliver this decree
From the beginning
And send it to the end!
