"Where The Rainbow Ends"

In my dream, I was in a valley
By waters clear as ice
Trees and mountains, surround me
Nothing so beautiful I've ever seen

Can a place like this, these days still exist?
A place people haven't destroyed yet
There's no pollution, just fresh air
There aren't any men who wouldn't care

This is the paradise where I want to stay
Where no one else can find a way

Where the rainbow ends
There I go, there I mend
There's the land of the free
There's the place, I want to be
There I go, go, where the rainbow ends

Mystery of this place keeps fascinating me
It preoccupies my mind, time after time
When I look at the sky and I see birds fly
It's a play at my theater

Into this dreamland, I always come back
Where my life goes on in the same, safe track
Take my hand and come with me
I'll show you the place you've never been

This is the paradise where I want to stay
Where no one else can find the way

Where the rainbow ends
There I go, there I mend
There's the land of the free
There's the place, I want to be
There I go, go, where the rainbow ends

Where the rainbow ends
There I go, there I mend
There's the land of the free
There's the place where I want to be

There I go, go, where the rainbow ends

Where the rainbow ends

There I go, there I mend

There's the land of the free

There's the place, I want to be

There I go, go, where the rainbow ends

There I go

There I go, where the rainbow ends
