Think we know, oblivious though
Unified clones sit like stones
Upon thrones of fools gold
Looking bold but all alone

Restore our needed shelter
Sitting sideways, something deep
Wading water, pants at my knees
Fading with growth, lie awake
Buried stones all alone

Restore our needed shelter
Our flawless endeavor
To be alone, to be alone

Sitting sideways, something deep
Wading water, pants at my knees
Sitting sideways, something deep
Fading with growth, lie awake
Lie awake, lie awake
