"The Ornament"

Well I've been aching for someone
I barely met
and I've been begging for something I'll never get and I've been tracing the footsteps of fallen men hoping to fill this void within

refrain:
but I'm here all alone again here all alone again
here all alone again

within (2x)

well I've been chasing the impossible and I've been floating around this world wondering why I'm still an orbit choking on the fumes up here choking on the fumes again

(refrain)

I barely met
I'll never get
