When you throw these fits,
I only see what I want to see.

We need to talk just means,
You'll never be what I need you to be.

I need to be told, I need to be sold
There were times you stayed so silent

What were you hoping to find?
Are you even human on the inside?

This is just like old times with you.
You're so quiet and I'm kicking over everything in the room

When I throw these fits,
You just see what you want to see.

"We need to talk" just means we have nothing to fight for.
