Admit it, we're finished, you don't want me no more, no
Like a nightmare, I lived it, it was big to ignore, oh
I hear the sirens but they pass me by
My hazard light are flashing
Somebody, anyone

Help cause it's an emergency
Someone just wounded my heart
So help it's a bad surgery
And now it's time to recharge

I'm starting over taking
1, 2 baby steps
3, 4 baby steps
5, 6 baby steps I'm starting over again

Abandoned yea I'm crying
It's like you left me for dead
(So dead, so dead)
I'm so broken
My love's frozen
How do you live with regrets?
I see the memories flash before my eyes
My tank is running empty
Somebody rescue me

Help cause it's an emergency
Someone just wounded my heart
So help it's like a bad surgery
And now it's time to recharge

I'm starting over taking
1, 2 baby steps
3, 4 baby steps
5, 6 baby steps
I'm starting over taking
1, 2 baby steps
3, 4 baby steps
5, 6 baby steps
I'm starting over again

It's unexplainable

Kind of unattainable
When the person you love ain't enough
I feel so pitiful
Look at my face you'll know
The pain is in my eyes

I need some help (hey!)
(Help cause it's an emergency)
Someone just wounded my heart
Can somebody help me
Can somebody save me yea
(So help it's like a bad surgery)
I said it's time to recharge
(And now it's time to recharge)
Help cause it's an emergency
(It's an emergency)
Somebody, please somebody help
(So help it's like a bad surgery)
Like a bad surgery
And now it's time to recharge

I'm starting over taking
1, 2 baby steps
3, 4 baby steps
5, 6 baby steps
I'm starting over taking
1, 2 baby steps
3, 4 baby steps
5, 6 baby steps
I'm starting over again.
Baby steps...
