Once again
Call me late at night
Cause you had a fight
Wanna know
If you should stay or go
Cause it happened again
With so and so
And you didn't know
Til a call from your friend
And I hate to see you like this Cause you deserve more than that

The time has passed
For being nice
And you really want
To hear my advice
Here it is

Your boyfriend, he don't respect you
You need someone to connect to
Like me to be there where you are
So this is what I've been thinking
I could be all that you're missing
Be your sun your moon your stars

I know you're feeling me
But you're scared to leave
Say that you're not sure
But you can't ignore
What you're calling to
And now it's after four
I could give you everything and more
If you just believe
I could be the wings that can make you soar
Just trust in me

The time has passed
For being nice
And you really want
To hear my advice
Here it is

Your boyfriend, he don't respect you
You need someone to connect to
Like me to be there where you are
So this is what I've been thinking
I could be all that you're missing
Be your sun your moon your stars

I could be your sun, your moon, your stars
I could be your sun, your moon, your stars
I could be your sun, your moon, your stars

Your boyfriend, he don't respect you
You need someone to connect to
Like me to be there where you are
So this is what I've been thinking
I could be all that you're missing
Be your sun your moon your stars
