Lately, you been changing
Not the same as when we started this
You knew our situation
Now you trippin
What's the reason?
I'm not leaving what I got at home
Why you asking you already know
What I'm gonna say
The answer is no
There's no time to play
Time for you to go

No more
So get on out the door
You're catching feelings
And that's not what this is for
If you can't handle what we got
Then I'mma have to cut it off
You're catching feelings
And that's not what this is for

Everything that starts must come to an end
We can't even be friends cause you're catching
feelings
It's a shame girl you had a chance to reason
Now I gotta be blind whoa whoa
Everything that starts must come to an end
Don't wanna see you again cause you're catching
feelings
It's a shame girl you can't see the reason
But it's here til the end whoa whoa

Let's get it clear
Never been ya man
But you want some if I can't have then no one can
Don't understand girl where you get off
Stressing out my girl blowing up my spot
Tryna get me caught
In some kind of lie
But won't play ya games
Cause I know your kind

Girl I ain't blind
See what ya tryna do
But you can hang it up
Cause there's no me and you

Anymore
Now get on out the door
You're catching feelings
And that's not what this is for
If you can't handle what we got
Then I'mma have to cut it off
You're catching feelings
And that's not what this is for

Everything that starts must come to an end
We can't even be friends cause you're catching
feelings
It's a shame girl you had to see the reasons
Now I gotta be blind whoa whoa
Everything that starts must come to an end
Don't wanna see you again cause you're catching
feelings
It's a shame girl you can't see the reason
But it's here til the end whoa whoa

Used to know this day would come
Only one to blame is you
Knew that I would never leave
Can't see you no more

Everything that starts must come to an end
We can't even be friends cause you're catching
feelings
It's a shame girl you had a change of reason
Now I gotta be blind whoa whoa
Everything that starts must come to an end
Don't wanna see you again cause you're catching
feelings
It's a shame girl you can't see the reason
But it's here til the end whoa whoa
