You are the lucky one
You're so far away from this place
I am here drowning over you
If I was like you
Drifting on and on in outer space
So perfectly new
Drifting on
Chorus
I got a message too
It's always the same for you
Gonna tell you again
That it's over and out, over and out
Coming through
I got a message too
Is it always the same for you
Can you hear me all right
Am I over and out, over and out
Over and out, over and out
One voice, a shade of light
Burning out and fading into the night
I'm so cold, searching for you here
If I was like you drifting on and on and on
In outer space
A hunger for truth
Drifting on
Chorus
