Praise and atone
A beautifully crafted, method to control
Rise and fall
For your delusional, healing

But there's no time to praise a savior
Who blinds you all for bein' his mistake here

I've fallen, fallen
The wind no longer deceives me again
But there's no time to praise a savior
Who blinds you all for bein' his mistake

I rise and fall for you to see me
Behind it all, I'll show you the way

I've fallen, I've fallen
The wind no longer will sway me again
But there's no time to praise a savior
Who blinds you all for bein' his mistake here

I rise and fall
I rise and fall
I rise and fall
I rise and fall

I've fallen, fallen
The wind no longer deceives me again
But there's no time to praise a savior
Who blinds you all for bein' his mistake here

But there's no time to praise a savior
Who blinds you all for bein' his mistake here
