Silence Lyrics

When you tell me that it's over,
I really don't give a shit
It's been over for so long
You enter unnoticed

Not again, not again!

We fall harder in silence
They look in your eyes
As you fall and I rise

Save me your wisdom, your hatred
I've heard it all before
Watch it ignite on contact
You cannot stop me

Not again, not again!

We fall harder in silence
They look in your eyes
As you fall and I rise

Your smile's a waste, my dear
It's such a waste
There is no secret here
It's safe to say,
It's over now.
