This situation's leaving
Me so high and dry
A complicated story
For this fucked up time

I'm always ready to go
I'll bury you alive
I don't know which way to go
You get so mad, so what?

It's hard to make a sound with dirt in your mouth
It's hard to say the words that won't come out
It's hard to say good bye when we've already lost
It's time to stop the loss

Maybe it's easy this way
Bludgeoned dollar signs
They'll crunch the numbers
And spit you out the other side

I'm always ready to go
I'll bury you alive
I don't know which way to go
You get so mad, so what?

It's hard to make a sound with dirt in your mouth
It's hard to say the words that won't come out
It's hard to say good bye when we've already lost
It's time to stop the loss

Don't bleed for them
It's been too long
Don't bleed for them not anymore

It's hard to make a sound with dirt in your mouth
It's hard to say the words that won't come out
It's hard to say good bye when we've already lost
It's time to stop the loss

It's hard to make a sound with dirt in your mouth
It's hard to say the words that won't come out

It's hard to say good bye when we've already lost
It's time to stop the loss
