What kid could understand this
When your nine years old nothing makes sense good year, you probably planned it let him go just when he's fitting in.

Things will be better this way
Don't worry, please don't worry
Stay with your mom on weekdays
I promise, what do you say

No plans for fatherhood,
So forget the wedding you don't need me
No plans for mothers day,
Cause you let me down so just leave me be.

My fault, no need to hide it
I'm overhearing conversations
Hey dad, do you like violence
I remember you had patience

Things will be better this way
Don't worry, please don't worry
Stay with your mom on weekdays
I promise, what do you say

No plans for fatherhood,
So forget the wedding you don't need me
No plans for mothers day,
Cause you let me down so just leave me be. (2x)
