What do you want
Why are you asking me
About the things used to say?
That kid went away
He disappeared years ago
And that's the last they've heard from me

Someone is rotting on the vine
This is no time to die
No one can tell you you'll be fine
This is your time to try

What do you think?
What are you after then?
Are these the things that went away?
I thought it was obvious
It is obvious
I'm lonely

Someone is rotting on the vine
This is no time to die
No one can tell you you'll be fine
This is your time to try

Someone is rotting on the vine
This is no time to die
No one can tell you you'll be fine
This is your time to try

Someone is rotting on the vine
This is no time to die
No one can tell you you'll be fine
This is your time to try
