Please open your books
Follow the passages
And highlight the ones where I save you
Isn't it better when the stories come true?

I went back and forth
I went back and forth
Mental pictures of the hallway and the front door
Writing a report
With these things of yours
I've got your details and your facts

Wide awake, please wake up, I'm wide awake
There's something I must say to you
I would die for you
If you want me to
I'll still be here to haunt you

You me my love
Is it wrong if I feel lucky?
When there's bandages and blood
Appearances mean nothing
What can I read for you today?
I am afraid you are recovering
Will I find you in love?

I went back and forth
I went back and forth
Mental pictures of the hallway and the front door
Writing a report
With these things of yours
I've got your details and your facts

Wide awake, please wake up, I'm wide awake
There's something I must say to you
I would die for you
If you want me to
I am not here to haunt you
