You're looking through me
You're looking through me
You're looking through me
You're looking through me
You're looking through, looking through

Looked in the mirror and what did I see?
A look of fear at my duplicity
Like darkened whispers let loose in your eyes
You're looking through me
The face I despise, girl!
I caught a glimpse of the man I was
I know you
I start to worry and all because
I know you
Yeah, I know you
I saw it when you looked in my eyes
Looked in the mirror and what did I see?
A look of fear at my duplicity
Like darkened whispers let loose in your eyes
You're looking through me
The face I despise

I caught a glimpse of the man I was
I know you
I start to worry and all because
I know you
Yeah, I know you
I saw it when I looked in your eyes

You're looking through me
You're looking through me
You're looking through me
You're looking through me
You're looking through me
You're looking through, looking through again

I got a glimpse of the man I was
I know you
I start to worry and all because
I know you
Yeah, and I'm sure that I know you

I saw it when you looked in my eyes
Yeah, and I'm sure that I know you
I saw it when I looked in your eyes

Because I know you
Because I know you
Because I know you
Because I....know....you, girl!
