"Leave Home"

History will judge the way I've lived
Well it's hard to say goodbye
To pieces of your life
And change things

My eyes are wider now and lessons have been learned
My ship is coming in
I'm leaving where I've been
Behind me

Cause we save ourselves
Cause no one else will

And don't you know

That any time you need to find
The strength to make a change in life
Save yourself
I'm leaving home

And anytime a smile reminds you of my face
And who I am
Save yourself
I'm leaving home

I've seen it all raised to the ground
I walk an open road
Out there is a home
I'll find it

The strength is in the will to leave
We know what lies ahead
Remember that I said I'll change things

Cause we save ourselves
Cause no one else will

And don't you know

That any time you need to find
The strength to make a change in life

Save yourself
I'm leaving home

And anytime a smile reminds you of my face
And who I am
Save yourself
I'm leaving home

All you've got to remember
Is who you are
The rest is dust just blowing in the wind
All you've got to remember
Is who you are
The rest is dust just blowing in the wind

And any time you need to find
The strength to make a change in life
Save yourself
I'm leaving home

And anytime a smile reminds you of my face
And who I am
Save yourself
I'm leaving hooome

Hoome
Hooome
Hooome

Song's dust blowin in the wind
Dust blowin in the wind...
