I've rolled with the thunder of troubles untold
Stayed in harms way as those troubles unfold
Drowned out the noise on the inside to find
We're all crying out for a sign

Yeah Yeah Yeah!

Tell me now who I am
Tell me why I am here
Give me reason
Before this is something that burns itself onto my fears

The more I am searching the more I despair
I must find the answers to why I am here
All that I want is a reason to be

Yeah Yeah Yeah!

Tell me now who I am
Tell me why I am here
Give me reason
Before this is something that takes me and breaks me
It burns me it hurts me
Watch it take me away
Watch it take me away

Yeah Yeah

Tell me now who I am
Tell me why I am here
Give me reason
Before this is something that I just can't do

Tell me now who I am
Tell me why I am here
Give me reason
Before this is something that takes me and breaks me
It burns me it hurts me
Watch it take me away!
Watch it take me away!
