If something's broken don't fix it
Just keep the pieces to remember what you've learned

It's been a while since I can remember a time
The lessons have come so quickly
But I guess

I'll get back in line
I'll get back in line

Any place that I go
I just know
That the fool follows me there

With a face of a man who knows
What it's like to wear a thousand yard stare

From walking on the line
From walking on the line

And I see the fool he rides again
And I see everything
And I know the things he did
And I see the words he lives

You know it must be me
I am his only company
Yeah

When will I slow down

All because the fool
He likes to get around

And I see the fool he rides again
And I see everything
And I know the things he did
And I see the words he lives

And I know the fool he rides again
And I see everything
And I know the things he did

Because he lived the words

C'mon
You know it must be me
I am his only company
Yeah

The fool he rides again
The fool he rides again
The fool he rides again
The fool he rides again
