Often noted, left and lonely
I've been trying to figure out where you stand
So loosely, devoted
Just know that I am marching in

At last we're left alone
These fights never end easy
I taste sweat and you're nervous, I know

I've seen what faces look like
When they're staring you in the eye
Kill the martyr, not the coward
Cause in my veins this poison's handling
Take your cover, it's never over
This is your chance, don't turn your back on me.

Take your cover, it's never over, it's never over
Take your cover it's never over
I'm coming back tonight
Take your cover it's never over
I'm coming back tonight

For days listen as he tries to help,
I'm dragged down the sharpest road,
Go home now (listen as he tries to help)
Go home now (down the sharpest road)
Go home now (listen as he tries to help)
Go home now

Often noted, left and lonely
I've been trying to figure out where you stand
So loosely, devoted
Just know that I am marching in

Kill the martyr, not the coward
Cause in my veins this poison's handling
Take your cover it's never over
This is your chance, don't turn your back on me
