Well, I'm rollin down the highway, looking in a bad way.
A lack of sleep and self medication.
Chewed my nails to the bone, wearin' everything I own.
And I'm about to snap without hesitation.
Another night, another place, wipe the worry from my face,
We made it on time once again.
But threw a big fit cause the sound check went like shit.
Ten minutes before the show to begin.

(Chs) Want it when I need it, cause I gotta have it all,
When I Hit The Stage.
You'd better get outta my way.
Cause I'm a bad reputation welding bastard all across the nation.
When I Hit The Stage.
You'd better clear outta my way.
Cause I'm looking for a reason to release some held in frustration.

Well, I'm going threw the motions, crossed another ocean,
my wallets in a bag in road island.
North, South, East, West, could say whice partys best.
My heart beats so fast I can't time it.
Another stage, another town, another trick goes down.
I gotta backstage pass for some ass.
But there's a bangin on the door, I gotta go it's after four.
I'm late I gotta get dressed fast.

(Chs)
Gettin paid, gettin laid, my office is a stage
A time cards not my reality, 9 to 5 is no way!
When I Hit The Stage (4x)

(Chs)
When I Hit The Stage (4x)
