I wanna hear this song after Whitney Huston.
Two hours later record sales start boostin'
Same damn song played twice an hour
Makes me wanna blow up the radio tower

(Chs)

They wont play me on the radio, they wont play me on the radio, they wont play me on the radio.
They wont play me on the fucking Radio!

While Snoop Doggs sippin on a Gin and Juice
Spears released another to tighten the noose
It's Been Awhile since I've heard that Staind song.
Repetition killed the radio star

(Chs)

So to all you new bands that sound like KORN.
It's been the samn damn story since your mother was born.
Originallty means nothing when you sound like the Bizkit.
Gotta write your own shit, can't you cats git wit it

(Chs)

Radio, radio, radio, radio, radio, radio, ra ra ra ra radio!

(Chs)-They wont play ME on the radio!
