"All Alone"

I hope you never write are you ever wrong. it's the story of your life or is that the TV on.

If you played your part as well as I could play along.
You would still be called a liar and I would still come back for more. "I hope you die from dreaming"

Your all alone, never thought you would be the one to go. Did you think you weren't replaceable? Funny how you were the last to know. That you're all alone

Sympathetic cries over our favorite song. I hate you when you're here and miss you when you're gone. So say goodbye im breaking this off for good. From all the first day to the last days. My story of the girl. It's my last time fore screaming.

Your all alone, never thought you would be the one to go. Did you think you weren't replaceable? Funny how you were the last to know. That you're all alone

So what would it take for you to discover. That I was the loser I was the sucker. How would you feel if I saw another and she made me happy would you ever recover.

Since it's what I wan I hope you never recover. Since it's what I want. (you would think I would be stronger)

Your all alone, never thought you would be the one to go. Did you think you weren't replaceable? Funny how

Your all alone, never thought you would be the one to go. Did you think you weren't replaceable? Funny how
