Baby, just a little bit

Just a little more time to mix things up

And if it's alright, just a little bit

I could show you how to rock n' roll

Baby, lets get into it

Lets get out of my car and into your clothes

Take a time for a little bit

Then we can let our hands take control

And if it's alright then it's all night

Dark eyes and dark intentions are what led us here
tonight

Girl, you get my heart jumping

And I want to get next to you

Like it's the last time, it's the last time

That I'll ever get to be with you

Girl, you really get me going

And I want to get close to you

Like it's the last time, it's the last time

That I'll ever get, I'll ever get to

Baby, we can get away

Trade the east coast for the west coast summer

Take me by the hand, don't say anything

I'll take you anywhere you wanna go

And baby, we'll be crazy

We can live it up like there's no tomorrow

Find the right time to make you all mine

I swear I'll never want to let you go

And if it's alright (lets go)

Then it's all night

Dark eyes and dark intentions are what led us here
tonight

Girl, you get my heart jumping

And I want to get next to you

Like it's the last time, it's the last time

That I'll ever get to be with you

Girl, you really get me going

And I want to get close to you

Like it's the last time, it's the last time

That I'll ever get, I'll ever hit the lights

We're running out of time

There's so much night we've wasted

Lets try to make this right

Girl, you get my heart jumping

And I want to get next to you

Like it's the last time, it's the last time

That I'll ever get to

Girl, you get my heart jumping

And I want to get next to you

Like it's the last time, it's the last time

That I'll ever get to be with you

Girl, you really get me going

And I want to get close to you

Like it's the last time, it's the last time

That I'll ever get to

And if it's alright, just a little bit
