Your giving up after all that's said and done
I'm begging you to change your mind
Forever you will be someone in my eyes
And darling forgiveness starts with S and ends with Y
The cleansing of a broken heart

I cry out
This fever for redemption,
This feeling that everything is broken
So I cry out
This fever for redemption.

So I scream out loud
"You're leaving for the last time"
I'll be better off without you on my own

Your giving up after all that's said and done
Forget forever it's good bye
Forever was just a myth inside my mind
And darling forgiveness starts with S and ends with Y
The cleansing of a broken heart

I cry out
This fever for redemption,
This feeling that everything is broken
So I cry out
This fever for redemption

All the words we used to say
All seem so insignificant today
And your excuses sound the same
Watch me as I walk away

So I scream out loud
"You're leaving for the last time"
I'll be better off without you on my own
So I scream out loud
"You're leaving for the last time"
I'll be better off without you on my own.
