A perfect A for losing friends, industry
So how'd we get so tangled up in you?
It's safe to say you've lost your faith in me,
But I won't turn my back on anyone but you

And I won't be there
When it crumbles to the ground
And I won't be there
Cause the hand you hold is the hand that holds you down

Hey!
Somebody get me out of here
Cause I've been here far too long
It will be simple when we're gone

Hey!
Somebody get me out of here
Cause I've been here far too long
It will be simple when we're gone

Today's the day we're letting go of everything
We'll watch the bridges burning to the ground
We'll ship the sink
And when it does, I'd like to think
You walk the plank before the ship goes down

And I won't be there
When the waves crash all around
And I won't be there
Cause the hand you hold is the hand holding you down

Hey!
Somebody get me out of here
Cause I've been here far too long
It will be simple when we're gone

Hey!
Somebody get me out of here
Cause I've been here far too long (been here far too long)

It will be simple when we're gone

No matter what you say, you're giving up (woah)
Give it up (woah)
Now we should have seen this coming cause you took us for a ride

Give it up (woah)
Give it up (woah)
And it's hard to say you're sorry
When you haven't said, you haven't said goodbye

You haven't said goodbye
You haven't said goodbye

Hey!
Somebody get me out of here
Cause I've been here far too long (been here far too long)
It will be simple when we're gone

Hey!
Somebody get me out of here
Cause I've been here far too long (been here far too long)
It will be simple when we're gone
No matter what you're say you're giving up
