You've got no one to defend you
You're out on your own still fightin' on the corner
You can never go home
In this world of temptation, in this city of sin
There's nothin' that can save you
But a strength from within

Because they'll do it again, they've done it before the devil's brigade
Headed down a dead end road with the devil's brigade
You're being led astray
Listen three four

The crew will not rest until your life's in the piss stop
And think of you're future
The chances you'll miss
Lookin' back on a resume of corruption and crime
'Cause you wasted your youth
Taken down in your prime

Because they'll do it again, they've done it before the
devil's brigade
Headed down a dead end road with the devil's brigade
You're being led astray
Listen three four

Dyin' to belong though it's tearin' you apart
A bullet to the head and a knife to the heart
Are the tools of the trade in this cold life of crime
A smart, decent kid who has now lost his mind

Because they'll do it again, they've done it before the
devil's brigade
Headed down a dead end road with the devil's brigade
You're being led astray
