(this is actually a buck-o-nine song, kidz, just cause it's irish doesn't make it dropkick murphys) (this is actually a real irish song, buck-o-nine just covered it, along with some other bands)

Well I stumbled at two am all drunk and fulla smoke
My wife said I have had enough Thats it I'm sick get out So I stumbled down to Kelly's Pub, across the edge of town
An I told the boys me story and we had another round

Chorus

We'll drink an drink an drink an drink
an drink an drink an fight
We'll drink an drink an drink an drink
an drink an drink an fight
And if i see a pretty girl I'll sleep with her tonight
Yes, We'll drink an drink an drink an drink
an drink an drink an fight

And Mary MacGraegor , well she was a pretty whore She'd always greet you with a smile and never locked her door
But on the day she died all the men in town did weep
For Mary MacGraegor finally got some sleep

Chorus

Well I once loved a girl, a child I'm told I gave her my heart and she gave me a cold
So now I sit standin here out in the pourin rain I'll stumble back to Kelly's Pub and cry away me pain

I'll drink an drink an drink an drink
an drink an drink an Fight
We'll drink an drink an drink an drink
an drink an drink an fight
And if i see a pretty girl

I'll sleep with her tonight an I'll drink an drink an drink an drink an drink an drink an Fiiiiiiiiiiight
