

Dropout Year "Biggest Fan"

Visit "Biggest Fan" on MotoLyrics.com

Walks on the beach as you bury your heart in the sand, and bury our love in the past,
I'll always be your biggest fan.

Dying to live for a hint of attention, nights in his bed you neglected to mention, your boy back home.

And I,
wanted to tell you I'm letting you go now,
gave up on hope with this song and a note,
always thought we'd make it some how yeah,
gave up on hope with this letter that you wrote.

Gave up on us for just one night of passion, loving and lusting while everyones laughing, and I'll always be your biggest fan.

do you regret,
nights on the swing sets,
nights on the beach,
when we watched the sunset,
and I'll always be there as your friend.

And I,
wanted to tell you I'm letting you go now, (letting you go now)
gave up on hope with this song and a note, (song and a note)
always thought we'd make it some how yeah,
gave up on hope with this letter that you wrote.

And I,
wanted to tell you I'm letting you go,
just thought you should know,
gave up on hope with this song and a note,
always thought we'd make it some how yeah,
gave up on hope with this letter that you wrote.

Song and a note.
