Maybe if you tried to understand
Instead of always holding back my hand
Hanging on
So I can't not step forward

With a little effort for yourself
You wouldn't be trapped in your own hell
Running circles 'til you
Believe something

Chorus
Don't waste my time
I'll live my life
All for myself
And flash you a smile
You wanna take them

No I'm not explaining myself again
And I'm not containing myself again
When every face you make
Is twisted backwards

So take your insecurities out on me
And never really practice what you preach
Don't you think it's time
You thought things through

Chorus

Don't waste my time
I'll live my life
All for myself
And flash you a smile
Yeah Yeah

Chorus
